

Communication Milestones at 4-5 years

- Follows three-step directions
- Asks questions for information
- Uses language to resolve disputes with others
- Can explain how-to to listeners
- Speaks of imaginary words, such as “what if...,” or “I hope...”
- Comprehends all question types, including how many
- Answers questions related to a story plot
- Understands basic math concepts, such as “more” and “less”
- Uses 6-8 word sentences
- Speech is typically understood by strangers

Erika Cardamone, MS, CCC-SLP
415.494.7571
erika@thespeechies.com
www.thespeechies.com